Dispute Resolution Policy

Definitions

1. The following term has this meaning in this Policy:
 - a) “Individuals” – All categories of membership defined in BCB’s Bylaws, as well as all individuals employed by, or engaged in activities with, BCB including, but not limited to, athletes, coaches, convenors, officials, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, and Directors and Officers of BCB

Purpose

2. BCB supports the principles of Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) and is committed to the techniques of negotiation, facilitation, and mediation as effective ways to resolve disputes. Alternate Dispute Resolution also avoids the uncertainty, costs, and other negative effects associated with lengthy appeals or complaints, or with litigation.
3. BCB encourages all Individuals to communicate openly, collaborate, and use problem-solving and negotiation techniques to resolve their differences. BCB believes that negotiated settlements are usually preferable to outcomes resolved through other dispute resolution techniques. Negotiated resolutions to disputes with and among Individuals are strongly encouraged.

Application of this Policy

4. This Policy applies to all Individuals.
5. Opportunities for Alternate Dispute Resolution may be pursued at any point in a dispute when all parties to the dispute agree that such a course of action would be mutually beneficial.

Facilitation and Mediation

6. The dispute will first be referred to BCB’s Independent Safe Sport Officer for review, with the objective of resolving the dispute via Alternate Dispute Resolution and/or mediation.
7. If all parties to a dispute agree to Alternate Dispute Resolution or medication, the Independent Safe Sport Officer may refer the alternate dispute resolution process to a resolution facilitator of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC).
8. Should a negotiated decision be reached, the decision shall be reported to, and approved by, BCB. Any actions that are to take place as a result of the decision shall be enacted on the timelines specified by the negotiated decision, pending BCB’s approval.
9. Should a negotiated decision not be reached by the deadline specified by the mediator or facilitator at the start of the process, or if the parties to the dispute do not agree to Alternate Dispute Resolution, the dispute shall be considered under the appropriate section of BCB’s Discipline and Complaints Policy or Appeal Policy, as applicable.

Final and Binding

10. Any negotiated decision will be binding on the parties. Negotiated decisions may not be appealed.
